

BRNO MUSEUM NIGHT 2015

Saturday May 16, 2015, 18.00–24.00

An exceptional night that only takes place once a year – this is the Brno Museum Night! It is traditionally related to the International Museum Day, scheduled on 18th May. Those interested in culture, history and science and living in Brno and its neighbourhoods again responded to the invitation. The opportunity to visit exhibitions in the unique nightly atmosphere as well as the attractive accompanying programme, including various live performances, creative workshops, guided tours and unusual presentations, brought thousands of visitors of all age groups to all the participating institutions. It was a great and pleasant Night thanks also to easy public transport, well prepared by the Brno Transport Authority, to smooth general coordination of all institutions and the good will of their staff to offer to the visitors interesting experiences in a comfortable setting. The reward can be expressed in high visitor numbers: Similarly to the previous editions, the overall number of visitors' entries exceeded one hundred thousand – actually, this year it was over one hundred and thirty thousand!

Most visitors were attracted by the core museum institutions, namely by the Moravian Gallery in Brno (in charge of the event organisation), the Moravian Museum, Technical Museum in Brno, Brno City Museum, Tourist Information Centre, Museum of the Brno Region and others; although the VIDA! Science Centre and Methodological Centre of Modern Architecture, participating for the first time, were very busy during the Brno Museum Night as well. Late sleepers appreciated the after programme in the Industria Centre.

The organisers of Brno Museum Night 2015 believe that the event has successfully accomplished its mission, i.e. to convince that museums, galleries and other cultural centres as well are here for the visitors and that they are worth seeing even more than once a year. If you are eager to learn new things, and also meet people who are on the same wave, please accept our invitation and come to visit us in the course of the year whenever you feel like experiencing anything special.

All the organisers of Brno Museum Night 2015 are looking forward to your visit.
